MOTHERS AND CHILDREN.

uals Make It a Success-List of Contributors.

The movement inaugurated early in the summer to provide free trolley rides for mothers and children during the heated term has proved to be so eminently successful as to make certain its continuance as a regular feature of the community's philanthropic effort. Nearly $1,000 has already been contributed to the fund, and the committee feels assured that sufficient additional funds will be received before the end of the summer to bring the total up to $1,500, which amount, it is estimated, can be judiciously expended by means of the work as now organized.

The plan is a very simple one and its great success is due to the fact that existing philanthropic agencies have been employed in addition to a considerable amount of helpful volunteer service. When the committee was formed for the purpose of raising the fund it was decided at once that the money should be disbursed under the direction of the officers and agents of the Associated Charities. This plan has proved to be very efficacious. The agents of the association being already acquainted with the opportunities in various sections of the city have been enabled quickly and quietly to place the tickets where they would do the most good. In addition to the giving of tickets to individual mothers, enabling them to take their children for car rides, these agents and visitors have from time to time organized parties, either for an afternoon or evening picnic, when lunch was provided by contributions se-cured especially for that purpose, or for an evening car ride to a pleasure park.

It would be difficult to compute the pleasure which has been given by means of the car rides and picnic parties. It is entirely within the truth to say that those who have conducted the parties have been as happy as have been those who have been the recipients of their generosity. Many a young lady whose summer hours hung heavily upon her hands has found useful and happy occupation for her time in assisting in conducting these parties.

The experience of the present summer has brought out many valuable suggestions for the carrying forward of the work in the future, and there is little doubt that the committee will be enabled, by reason of this, to greatly enlarge and perfect the Universal Approval. One of the most satisfactory features of the movement, from the committee's standpoint, has been the universal approval which it has received. The letters sending contributions have been of the most cordial tone, and many of the donors have indicated a willingness to give as frequently as the money should be needed. It has been the desire of the committee, how-ever, that a large number of gifts of small amounts should be received, rather than any considerable amount from one person. President Roosevelt, Lieutenant Governor Willard of Virginia, Secretary Shaw of the Treasury Department, Mrs. Dewey, wife of the admiral, and many others prominent in official and social life have been numbered among the contributors to date. It is expected that the additional funds needed for this year's work will be forthcoming speedily, so that the committee may see its way clear to do all that has been planned. Contributions may be sent to Mr. John Joy Edson, chairman of the committee, at the Washington Loan and Trust Company; to C. J. Bell, treasurer of the committee. Trust Company; to C. J. Bell, treasurer of the committee, American Security and Trust Company; to Mr. John B. Sleman, jr., secretary of the committee, Union Savings Bank; to Mr. Charles F. at Epiphany Chapel-Travel Plans - Notes.

The engagement was announced yesterday at Cobourg, Canada, of Miss Vivian Sar-Mrs. Sartoris gave a reception, and the inafternoon. Miss Sartoris only returned from Europe a few weeks ago. Last year her wedding day was set for July 11, but a short time prior her engagement to Mr. Arthur Balfour was broken. After returning to this country this summer she and her sister, Miss Rose Mary Sartoris, joined their mother and grandmother, Mrs. U. S. Grant, at the latter's home at Cobourg. Mr. Scovel is a son of Chevalier and Mme. Scovel, a cousin of President Roosevelt, a nephew of Frederick Roosevelt of New York and of Mme. Ricardo Diaz Albertini of Cobourg. Mrs. Scovel was Maria Roose-

The wedding day is set for August 23, and the ceremony will take place at St. Peter's Church, Cobourg. A beautiful and impressive wedding was that of Miss Virginia May Lewis and Mr. Harry Percy Baines at Epiphany Chapel, corner 12th and C streets southwest, last evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. H. H. Phelps of Lenoir, N. C., officiating. The church was adorned with cut flowers and graceful naims. Miss Wingerton adorned with cut flowers and graceful paims. Miss Wingate presided at the organ and played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered the church. The vested choir sang "O, Perfect Love" leading the bridal party to the chancel. The bride passed up the alsie with Judge George C. Ross of Illinois, who, owing to the indisposition of Col. Nathan Bickford, gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom who awaitmet at the altar by the groom, who await-ed her there with his best man. The marriage service was read from a white pray-er book carried by the bride.

The happy pair then passed down the aisle, followed by the little flower girl, the matron of honor and best man, the bridesmaids and ushers, while the organ peeled forth exquisite strains from Mendelssohn. The bride, who is a petite brunette. was lovely in her gown of snowy mousse-line de sole, trimmed with numberless white satin ribbons. The veil of white tulle which reached the border of her gown was held in place by sprays of white jessamine and a sunburst of diamonds.

The bride's charming sister, Mrs. George
J. Stafford, as matron of honor looked girl-ishly fair in her becoming gown of palest green organdy. She carried a white prayer book. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Wiegman and Miss Emma Greenwell, were prettily attired in gowns of Nile green organdy with sashes to match. They also carried white prayer books.

The flower girl, Miss Agnes O'Donnell, the beautiful and graceful little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. O'Donnell, was dressed in white dotted net over white silk, and carried suspended from a ribbon about her neck a large white hat filled with the choicest productions of the lovely green houses of Mt. Vernon.

The ushers were Messrs. Lee, Woods,
Goldney and Browning. The best man was Mr. Sullivan Ross.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Amanda Lewis, entered the church with her son-in-law, Mr. George J. Stafford. She was gowned in black grenadine over black silk, trimmed with violet ribbons, and wore diamond ornaments. Mr. and Mrs. Baines were the reciplents of many beautiful and costly presents, notable among them being a silver teapot which belonged to a service owned by the bride's great, great grandand showers of rice, a large and merry crowd of friends having assembled at the depot. They will visit Niagara Falls and other places of interest, and upon their return home about September 1 will reside at 426 9th street southwest, where they will be glad to receive their friends. The bride's going away dress was of brown broadcloth with a becoming white felt hat.
